THE DECISION OF THE NATIONAL WAR LABOR BOARD AND THE CANNED MUSIC CONTROVERSY

By JAMES C. PETRILLO
President, American Federation of Musicians

The directive order issued by the National War Labor Board on June 15, 1944, is published herewith. After reading this directive order you are requested to read the letter which was addressed to all locals of the Federation on June 16, 1944. This letter, which follows the War Labor Board directive order, is self-explanatory and sets forth the reasons for the Federation's refusal to comply with said order.

You will also find Resolution No. 43 passed unanimously at the Chicago Convention on June 7, 1944, contained in the editorial on page 12. This Resolution, by unanimous order of the Convention, makes it mandatory for every member of the Federation to refuse his services for the making of recordings and transcriptions to any person, company or employer, unless such person, company or employer enters into a written agreement with the Federation embodying the same terms and conditions now included in the "Decca" and the "Four Employer" contracts.

Directive Order

By virtue of and pursuant to the powers vested in it by Executive Order 9017 of January 12, 1942, the Executive Orders, Directives and Regulations issued under the Act of October 2, 1942, and the War Labor Board Disputes Act of June 25, 1943, the National War Labor Board hereby decides the dispute between the parties and orders that the following terms and conditions of employment shall govern the relations between the parties:

1. The agreements entered into between the Federation and various transcription and recording companies settling their disputes do not require the approval of the War Labor Board, since the payments to be made thereunder by the Companies to the Union for the benefit of the Employment Fund are not wage adjustments within the meaning of the wage stabilization program.

2. The ban upon playing or contracting for "recordings, transcriptions or any other form of mechanical reproductions of music" by members of the Federation, resulting from the action of the Federation on June 25, 1942, shall promptly be withdrawn.

3. The Federation and the three remaining Companies which are parties to this dispute shall endeavor to reach an agreement regarding the amounts and the schedule of escrow payments to be made by the Companies.

4. If no such agreement is reached within fifteen days from the date of this directive order, and if the time for negotiation is not extended by mutual consent, the parties shall report to the Board their respective positions. The Board will then determine the amounts and the schedule of escrow payments and order that the payments be begun.

5. After the amounts and schedule of escrow payments have been fixed by agreement or by the order of the Board, the parties shall endeavor within thirty days (or within such further period as they may mutually specify) to reach an agreement regarding the method of distribution of the payments—by whom, to whom, for what purposes, and for how long the payments should be made.

6. If no such agreement is reached within the time limited, the parties shall have a further period of ten days (which may be extended by mutual consent) within which to endeavor to agree upon the composition of an Arbitration Board and the frame of reference within which such a Board shall render a decision that shall be final and binding upon the parties.

7. If Step (6) is exhausted without agreement, the parties shall report to the War Labor Board their respective positions, and the War Labor Board will then appoint an Arbitration Board and determine the frame of reference within which the Board so appointed shall render a decision which shall be final and binding upon the parties.

The foregoing terms and conditions shall be incorporated in a signed agreement reciting the intention of the parties to have their relations governed thereby, as ordered by the National War Labor Board.

Subsidiary Locals Granted Autonomy

The colored delegates to the Chicago Convention appointed the following delegation to represent them before the International Executive Board, requesting that the Board consider granting the subsidiary colored locals full autonomy and that subsidiary locals be abolished:

R. L. Goodwin.....Local 550, Cleveland, Ohio
P. S. Cooke.....Local 462, Atlanta, Georgia
Harry W. Gray.....Local 208, Chicago, Illinois
L. V. Plummer.....Local 533, Buffalo, New York
Edward Bailey.....Local 767, Los Angeles, California
William H. Bailey.....Local 710, Washington, D. C.
Traveling Representative Jackson

After due consideration, the International Executive Board by unanimous vote has abolished subsidiary charters in connection with colored locals. There were twelve locals operating as subsidiaries under control of the white locals in their respective jurisdictions. This means that these former subsidiary locals will receive a charter of their own from the American Federation of Musicians and will govern themselves in the same manner as any other local.

June 16, 1944.

To All Locals of the American Federation of Musicians in the United States:

Dear Sirs and Brothers:

The National War Labor Board, by a vote of eight to four directs the American Federation of Musicians to lift its so-called recording ban which became effective August 1, 1942. This so-called ban resulted from a declaration by the American Federation of Musicians at its Convention in Seattle in 1941, and reaffirmed at the following Convention held at Dallas in June, 1942, and states that on and after August 1, 1942, musicians would no longer render services in the making of recordings and transcriptions. This was put into force and effect by the officers of the Federation at the direction of a Convention, and only a Convention can set it aside.

The entire subject matter was brought to the attention of our Convention, which took place in Chicago, June 5, 1944, and the previous actions of the Seattle and Dallas Conventions were ratified and reaffirmed. Resolution No. 43 (which was adopted unanimously at the Chicago Convention and which appears in the second column of page 12) provides that all matters shall remain in status quo and no member be permitted to record for RCA-Victor or Columbia Recording Company, or any other company which has not signed a recording agreement with the American Federation of Musicians.

In order that our members may not be misled by prejudiced press releases and comments, I desire to make a few observations for their guidance.

As a result of the War Labor Board's decision, the contracts with the Decca Company, and eighty-eight other companies, providing for the payment of a certain sum per record to the Federation as an employment fund are valid and binding. These contracts remain in full force and effect. Thus, the principle for which we have fought has been established in the industry, regardless of the bitter opposition of RCA-Victor and Columbia.

Symphony Orchestras

WITH their avowed purpose that of providing entertainment and solace for service men on leave and sustaining civilian morale, summer concerts are now being enjoyed the length and breadth of the land. The New York Stadium Concerts Defense Entertainment Committee, in its letter of appeal in behalf of service men, states, "We are fervently hoping that this is the last wartime summer. So please do help us to make it possible for our service men and women from all over the country to hear, for perhaps the only time, these great outstanding artists with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra."

Excellent conductors engaged for the summer season—among them Alexander Smallens, Vladimir Golschmann, Efrem Kurtz, Leonard Bernstein and Fabien Sevitzky — and artists of the highest calibre—including Marian Anderson, Jascha Heifetz, Fritz Kreisler and Artur Rubinstein — guarantee a summer's entertainment of the highest calibre. Ania Dorfmann, Russia's great woman pianist, was soloist July 8th, playing the Beethoven Concerto No. 3 in C minor. Mr. Golschmann conducted.

Special stress is being laid on American works with compositions by Virgil Thomson, Jerome Moross, Morton Gould, Samuel Barber, Leo Sowerby, David Diamond, Aaron Copland and Leonard Bernstein.

Philharmonic Premiere

MORTON GOULD'S "Symphony on Marching Tunes", when it was recently given its premiere performance by the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Vladimir Golschmann, was acclaimed by critics and audience alike. In its four movements—the Civil War Era, with tunes of the time interwoven; "Bivouac", showing the darker side; "Quick-Step", brash and blatant, and "Memorial", tense and austere—America is presented in her varying war-time moods.

MORTON GOULD and VLADIMIR GOLSCHMANN

Mozart in the Berkshires

DESPITE the fact that the musical world will again this year be deprived of the Berkshire Festival, Dr. Serge Koussevitzky has seen to it that there will be musical activity at Tanglewood after all. He will direct a Mozart Festival of four concerts there on July 29th and 30th, and August 5th and 6th. The orchestra will be made up of members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and soloists will include Dorothy Maynor, soprano; Ruth Posselt, violinist; Robert Casadesus, pianist, and the duo-pianists, Luboshutz and Nemenoff.

Boston

SUCH is the magic of the Boston "Pops" Orchestra under Arthur Fiedler that even the Japs use it for musical ammunition, relaying to our fighting men in the Pacific vid radio the regular Saturday evening concerts. As one of the commentators puts it, "Nothing could be more accommodating, except perhaps a mass hara-kiri movement on the part of the little Nips."

Joseph Wagner, founder of the Boston Civic Symphony Orchestra, has retired as conductor after eighteen years at that post. His successor is Paul Cherkassky, who has been violinist in the Boston Symphony Orchestra for twenty years.

Philadelphia

A "POP" CONCERT, unique in the history of Robin Hood Dell and American music generally, with some twenty writers of America's songs participating as piano and vocal soloists in their own numbers and with composer Sigmund Romberg as conductor and master of ceremonies, is promised by the Dell management for August 3rd. To be featured as a "Salute to the American Song Composer", the concert will present Harry Armstrong, Stanley Adams, Peter ReRose, Charles Tobias, Herman Hufield, "Luckey" Roberts, Harry Tierney, Mabel Wayne, Milton Drake, Al Hoffman, Jerry Livingston, Alex Kramer, Dorothy Fields, Nat Simon, Sammy Stept, Ray Henderson, John Whitney and Abel Baer. Their numbers are to be set forth in arrangements specially prepared for the symphony orchestra of ninety musicians.

Washington, D. C.

FIRST of the service men to appear on this summer's Watergate Concerts, Oscar Shumsky, Musician 1st Class, U. S. N., played on the evening of June 18th the technically demanding Wieniawski Violin Concerto No. 2, and by his performance proved himself a full-fledged and highly competent artist. Stanley Chapple conducted.

The Watergate Concert of June 28th was dedicated "to those inhabitants of Washington who do most of the work and get little of the glory", that is, to the Federal employees. Soloist was the young pianist, Earl Wild, "American to his finger-tips", now serving in the Navy as a Musician 1st Class. Nathan Milstein, at the concert of June 30th, played the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto in E Minor.

The all-Tchaikovsky program conducted by Antal Dorati on July 7th was set off by the brilliant pianism of Jorge Bolet, Assistant Military Attache of the Cuban Embassy.

North Carolina

THE North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, Benjamin Swalin, conductor, concluded its 1943-44 season with a week-end of five concerts in Chapel Hill, Greensboro and Greenville, North Carolina. The soloist for the Chapel Hill and Greensboro concerts was pianist Paul Stassevitch, who performed the Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto with the orchestra.

New Orleans

MASSIMO FRECCIA, who has recently become permanent conductor of the New Orleans Symphony, has already begun "working on an idea" of touring with the orchestra along the length of the Mississippi River much in the same way Serge Koussevitzky at one time traveled up and down the Volga river on a concert tour. As Mr. Freccia puts it, "There are thousands of large and small communities along the Mississippi. Why not take an orchestra on a long trip up the river? Of course, it could not be done until after the war, but I see great possibilities in the idea. There are some enormous steamers on the Mississippi—big excursion boats that are palatial, with great ballroom decks which could accommodate an orchestra and a large audience." Certainly, good music would thus be brought to many who have never had the opportunity of attending symphony concerts before.

The second annual series of New Orleans summer "pop" concerts, which started June 15th, is being directed by Izler Solomon who, for the first program, conducted a "United Nations" concert in conjunction with the opening of the Fifth War Loan Drive.

Cincinnati

TO celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, which takes place in the 1944-45 season, the organization has announced a nationwide competition for the writing of a "Jubilee Overture" for full orchestra. The prize will be $1,000 in War Bonds. Judges will be Eugene Goossens, the orchestra's conductor; Pierre Monteux, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, and Deems Taylor, composer and author. The competition is open to all American citizens and works submitted must be between ten and fifteen minutes in length and written especially for the anniversary.

Cleveland

FOR the sixth consecutive season the Cleveland Summer Orchestra, under the direction of Rudolph Ringwall, is presenting a series of "pop" concerts given Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Detroit

A SERIES of eight Detroit Symphony Twilight Concerts, conducted by Karl Krueger, came to a close July 12th with a Vienna night, in which Robert Stolz, Hertha Glaz and Mario Berini participated. Other soloists of the season were Gladys Swarthout, John Charles Thomas, Ezio Pinza, Oscar Levant and Alec Templeton. The profits of the concerts go to the Maintenance Fund of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Ravinia

ALREADY in this season's Ravinia Festival, Joseph Szigeti has appeared as soloist in no less than four concerts, on July 4th, 8th, 11th and 15th, playing concertos respectively by Beethoven, Mozart, Brahms and Mendelssohn. Always a favorite with Chicago audiences, he has been especially warmly received this year. Other soloists to appear will be Rudolf Serkin (July 22nd) and Alexander Brailowsky (August 1st and 15th), pianists; Kerstin Thorborg, mezzo-soprano, and John Garris, tenor. The latter two soloists will sing the Mahler "Song of the Earth" at the concerts of July 20th and 23rd.

The Perfect Host

LOCAL 10, as one means of proving itself the perfect host to the 48th Convention of the American Federation of Musicians, presented on June 5th a complete concert by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Désiré Defauw. Marian Anderson, as soloist, sang two spirituals, "De Gospel Train" and "My Soul's Been Anchored in De Lord", and the arias, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson et Dalila" and "O Mio Fermando" from "La Favorita". Orchestra numbers included Berlioz' Overture to "Benvenuto Cellini", Debussy's "The Afternoon of a Faun" and Strauss' tone-poem, "Don Juan", Opus 20.

The Women's Symphony Orchestra presented a concert on July 7th, conducted by Jerzy Bojanowski. Grace Moore was soloist.

Minneapolis

THE 1944-45 season of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra will open October 18th, Dimitri Mitropoulos continuing as its regular conductor. Instrumentalists already engaged as soloists are Robert Casadesus, Rudolf Serkin, Artur Rubinstein, Fritz Kreisler, Jascha Heifetz and Nathan Milstein.

Hollywood

A PROGRAM of summer musical entertainment which the prospectus describes as "fabulous" is the fare of Hollywood Bowl in this its 23rd season of "Symphonies Under the Stars". From July 11th on there will be thirty-seven nights of highly-diversified programs built around the Philharmonic Orchestra which will perform in its complete personnel under the direction of eminent conductors such as Dimitri Mitropoulos, George Szell, Artur Rodzinski and Otto Klemperer.

Marian Anderson will make her Hollywood Bowl debut on July 18th with Mitropoulos conducting. Jascha Heifetz will also be numbered among the soloists, as well as Oscar Levant, Artur Rubinstein, Yehudi Menuhin and Joseph Szigeti.

Toronto

FOR her Toronto Promenade Concert on June 22nd, the anniversary of the date of Russia's entrance into the war, Bertha Glaz, contralto, chose three Russian songs, including a Red Army song, as tribute to our ally.

Erno Rapee was the guest conductor of the concerts of July 20th and 27th, at which Vivian Della Chiesa and Conrad Thibault were respectively soloists.

News Nuggets

DURING the Fifth War Loan Drive Arturo Toscanini contributed his services as conductor to two War Bond concerts presented by N. B. C.

Henry Fabrizio of the Boston Symphony Orchestra not only plays the cello but actually makes the instruments himself. The first one he fashioned for himself so impressed fellow cellists that he began receiving orders. He uses only the choicest woods and is painstaking in his craftsmanship.

Georges Barrere, considered one of the world's greatest flutists, died in Kingston, New York, on June 14th at the age of 69. To his credit must go at least part of the responsibility for the flute's being put to use as a solo instrument, since his mastery of it proved its artistic expressiveness. Mr. Barrere, as well as playing with the New York Symphony and other important ensembles, made several nationwide concert tours and wrote many articles for magazines and newspapers.

Top-Flight Bands

IT is a matter of conjecture whether swing leaders themselves realize fully the significance in cultural and entertainment value of the music they dispense—that, as a matter of simple record, for instance, together with sky-scraper architecture, animated cartoons and musicals such as "Oklahoma", "jazz" stands as one of the purely American contributions to world art and culture. However grudgingly top-flight leaders are bound to take the news, jazz is as "highbrow" in its category as works of Bach or Beethoven are in theirs. As a recent article by Paul Eduard Miller and Leonard Feather in Esquire puts it, "Jazz bears the same relation to popular music as does classical to light classical music." This same article gives also two excellent definitions of jazz: "Jazz is an externalization in musical sounds by men who instinctively 'feel' the spirit of the times", and, "If it is nothing else, good jazz is a type of music which can withstand repeated playing without inciting feelings of boredom and revulsion."

Manhattan Madcaps

TOMMY TUCKER opened July 3rd at Hotel Astor.

LOUIS PRIMA also opened at the Astor on that date, supplementing Tucker.

LES BROWN opened at the Pennsylvania Hotel July 3rd for a six-week date.

HORACE HEIDT'S orchestra will play its first location date in New York in several years later this summer, following Les Brown's orchestra into the Pennsylvania Hotel in August.

JOE MARSALA played at Hickory House June 16th.

JOE DURA and his orchestra have an all-summer date at Ray's Place.

XAVIER CUGAT has a four-week date at the Waldorf-Astoria which will take him to July 24th.

DUKE ELLINGTON, after a tour of Canada and New England, returned to New York this month for a stay at t'e Roxy Theatre with his band.

VINCENT LOPEZ' orchestra began a three-week date at the Strand Theatre, July 14th.

JERRY WALD will finish his four-week date at Paramount Theatre, July 25th.

NEWS from the HOME FRONT

When on June 20th the American Theatre Wing Stage Door Canteen in New York City reopened, a long line of service men who had been waiting outside streamed in and were welcomed by the women of the American Theatre Wing War Service. Their enthusiasm was amply justified. Gone were the crowded conditions that hampered the old canteen. The dance floor oval had been moved into the center of the room, with a fifty-foot extension. To the small tables that dot the place, side wall benches had been added, making room for scores more of seats. The rough plaster posts had become mirrored columns that reflected the dancing couples. At blue and red counters a crew of seventeen girls were serving coffee, tea, pie and 2,500 sandwiches. But perhaps the crowning touch in these sweltering days was the new cooling system warranted to make dancing, eating and other such canteen activities a pleasure.

SYMPHONIC SCHEDULES

As soon as the American forces retake the Philippines, General MacArthur wants Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, to direct the Manila Symphony Orchestra in a series of "victory" concerts. Mr. Ormandy has accepted the invitation with alacrity.

That the love of symphonic music can survive every adverse circumstance is amply proved by a letter from an American prisoner of war in Germany, received by the Philharmonic-Symphony Society recently. "I am an American officer prisoner of war in Germany", it read. "While in our present difficulty my fellow-officers and I, who before the war were constant listeners to the New York Philharmonic concerts, want to keep in touch with the orchestra, its conductors, soloists and concert schedule. We would be very much obliged if you could make available to us your weekly program notes and your programs for the summer season. Also any current literature about the orchestra will be appreciated. If the intermission commentary is being printed we would like to have it, too. Thanking you very sincerely, I remain, Lieut. T. M. H."

The Philharmonic assures us that the request was filled in record time.

SONG WRITERS, ALL

Zo Elliott, Vermont composer, who wrote that gem of World War I, "There's a Long, Long Trail A-Winding", has written a military march which has been accepted by Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery as a marching song of the British Eighth Army, according to Carl Fischer, Inc., publishers of the music. General Montgomery acknowledged the receipt of the dedication of the march in the following words: "I have received the band score for the march which you have composed for my army, and I am delighted with it. I accept its dedication to the Eighth Army. Thank you very much. Excuse this captured Fascist paper, but it is all I have at the moment. Yours sincerely, Bernard L. Montgomery."

Speaking of song-writers, Pvt. Raymond Rand says he has discovered the secret of how to become one. While in an army hospital in Africa last December, he says, he received two shots of blood plasma, since which time he has written no less than thirty songs. His is a natural conclusion, therefore: "There must have been music in the blood."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

Seven Hundred and Fourteen Delegates Attend—Entire Staff of Officers Re-elected.

By CHAUNCEY A. WEAVER

To Chicago, artistic, commercial and industrial colossus of the Middle West, fell the task of entertaining the Forty-eighth Convention of the American Federation of Musicians. This made three occasions upon which she assumed this great undertaking—1918, 1933 and 1944. Specifically, to Local 10 came the honor, the detailed responsibility and the fulfillment.

On Monday, June 5th, at 2:00 P. M., President James C. Petrillo's official gavel fell. For one and one-half hours the assembling delegates and visitors had been regaled with a concert program by the great Chicago Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Conductor Désiré Defauw, orchestral numbers being interspersed with vocal numbers by the incomparable Marian Anderson.

"The Star-Spangled Banner" for American members, and "God Save the King" for their Canadian affiliates, and the Convention was under way, in the Grand Ball Room of the Stevens Hotel. The invocation was delivered by Dr. John Thompson, long-time pastor of Chicago Methodist Temple. William Kowalski, chairman of the Local Entertainment Committee, then assumed charge and addressed a cordial welcome to all. Mayor Edward J. Kelly, long-time friend and civic associate of President Petrillo, extended felicitations in behalf of the city. Sheriff Mulcahey, of Cook County, brought reassuring words to all visitors who might become innocently involved. Victor A. Olander, Secretary-Treasurer of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, pledged to the musicians whole-hearted support in their pending fight against the competition of mechanical music. Former President Joseph N. Weber was introduced and reviewed the early struggles of the musicians, after which President Petrillo deli ered his opening address. President Roosevelt sent a telegram of good wishes, after which Mr. Joe Hansen of the District Council of Carpenters, presented President Petrillo with a gavel, ominous in its potentialities for the enforcement of order. This was followed by a roll-call of delegates which revealed that 714 Federationists had presented credentials of authority under which they were entitled to have a part in the transaction of the official business of the convention.

From this point on will appear a routine report of each day's convention proceedings. For a more intimate review of events of the week you are referred to "Over Federation Field".

Canadian National Anthem

President Petrillo calls the Convention to order at 2:00 P. M.

The Invocation was delivered by Rev. Dr. John Thompson, S.T.D.

President Petrillo introduces the Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, William Kowalski, who welcomes the delegates and guests.

He then introduces the Mayor of Chicago, Hon. Edward J. Kelly.

Mayor Kelly tells of his high respect for musicians and his friendship for President Petrillo. He thanked the Federation for what its members are doing and welcomes the Convention to Chicago.

Sheriff Mulcahey of Cook County is introduced and joins the Mayor in the welcome.

Victor A. Olander, Secretary-Treasurer of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, welcomes the Convention to the State of Illinois. He states the musicians have the support of organized labor in the fight on the competition of mechanical music.

Chairman Kowalski now introduces former President of the A. F. of M., Joseph N. Weber, who tells of the early struggles of the organization and points to what has been accomplished in the years of its existence. States that the delegates always used good judgment in conducting the affairs of the A. F. of M.

His address is received with great applause.

Chairman Kowalski now introduces President Petrillo, who receives a tremendous ovation.

He addresses the Convention and states that he is glad to be among his friends. He reads a telegram from President Roosevelt, which is applauded by the delegates.

He makes a full explanation of the recording situation.

He refers to President Green of the A. F. of L. as having done a grievous wrong to the A. F. of M. when he attempted to interfere with the internal affairs of our organization.

President Petrillo explains the workings of the War Labor Board. At the close of his address he was cheered.

Mr. Joseph Hansen, vice-president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, District Council of Carpenters, presents a gavel to President Petrillo.

President Petrillo expresses his thanks.

Vice-President Bagley in the chair.

Roll call of delegates followed.

"SPIKE" JONES says Bob Burns' Bazooka can't be "Beat" .. but LEEDY DRUMS CAN TAKE PUNISHMENT Galore!

"SPIKE" JONES is keeping his Leedys mighty busy these days, broadcasting from NBC Hollywood on the Lifebuoy show, with Bob Burns, and doing the Gilmore Oil Company program. The City Slickers (Spike's band) provide the musical "punch" to both of the above shows, and because of their schedule require the best percussion instruments available. A tribute to Leedy quality and construction is "Spike's" use of Leedy drums and traps for 15 of his 20-year drumming experience! Previous engagements of "Spike" Jones include: Bing Crosby, USO, M.C.A., etc.

Johnny's got a new tune.

and swing can wait --- and so can Mairzy Doats!

For Johnny is playing serious music now — the roar of his B-17, the ack-ack of his turret gun; playing better because of Blessing craftsmanship.

The same skill and care that hand-fashioned the famous SUPER ARTIST line of band instruments — is today producing precision parts for the instruments of war!

Play well, Johnny! And when you come marching home again, there'll be a "Blessing" to welcome you in the band.

It's a Blessing!

Opera and Operetta

OPERA returned to the Lewisohn Stadium, New York, June 26th when Verdi's "Aida" was presented with an all-Metropolitan Opera cast under the direction of Alexander Smallens. It was repeated the following evening. Zinka Milanov, Bruna Castagna, Kurt Baum and Alexander Sved sang the leading roles. "La Traviata" was given on June 30th and July 1st with Bidu Sayao as Violetta, Jan Peerce as Alfredo and Alexander Sved as Germont.

Summer opera in Chicago, too, will feature these two operas, with an added one, "Il Trovatore". Fortune Gallo and Harry Zelzer are the promoters of the out-of-door operatic series which, in Soldiers Field on July 21st, 22nd and 23rd, will present these operas with casts made up principally of singers from Mr. Gallo's San Carlo Opera Company, including Stella Andreva, Elda Ercole, Anna Kaskas, Sydney Rayner, Mario Palermo, George Czaplicki, Mostyn Thomas, Stefan Ballarini and Harold Kravitt. George Schick is the musical director.

Piedmont Festival

DONIZETTI'S "A Daughter of the Regiment" will be presented during the course of the Piedmont Festival of Music and Art which is to be held in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, July 19th through 23rd. George King Raudenbush will direct that and all other musical events of the week.

Autumn Plans

WITH all performances in English and casts of young American singers, the Philadelphia Opera Company plans a seventh season, in which four operas, "Tosca", "The Marriage of Figaro", "La Boheme" and "The Merry Widow", the latter in entirely new production, will be given in Philadelphia during March and April. The company will also undertake a twenty-week tour, under the management of S. Hurok, which will begin in October and include engagements across the entire continent. David Hocker has been re-engaged as the company's general manager.

Assuming his first operatic post in this country, George Sebastian, Hungarian-born conductor, is scheduled to conduct the San Francisco Opera Company in that city and in Los Angeles this Fall.

The Metropolitan Opera Association announces that it has engaged Erich Kleiber, distinguished Austrian conductor, to take the place of Bruno Walter, the latter having departed for a year's vacation after directing on the podiums of various symphony and opera orchestras for fifty years. Mr. Kleiber has directed the New York Philharmonic-Symphony and other orchestras in this country, and in Europe was conductor of the Berlin State Opera. Born in Vienna in 1890 he held various posts of importance in Europe until 1936 when he resigned his Berlin post and left that Nazified country with his wife and two children and with exactly forty marks in his pocket, the equivalent of about $10.00, or all the capital the German authorities would permit him to take out of the country.

G. I. Joe's Fare in Algiers

THE Opera House in Algiers, North Africa, kept open until the middle of July this year, instead of as usual suspending in May, in order to provide entertainment for the men in service. Despite all kinds of wartime difficulties the Opera House maintained an uncommonly varied repertoire, having staged no fewer than thirty-four separate productions—seven plays, ten operettas and seventeen operas.

Mexico City Season

WITH a varied repertoire and a cast that compares favorably with the Metropolitan roster, the National Opera season in Mexico City opened June 14th with Wagner's "Tristan und Isolde". Conductors for the series include Gaetano Merola, Jean Morel, Jascha Horenstein, Guido Picco, Carl Alwin and Ignacio del Castill.

Curtain Call

THE honorary degree of music has recently been conferred on Fausto Cleva, general artistic director of the Chicago Opera Company, by the College of Music of Cincinnati. Mr. Cleva has been musical director of the Cincinnati Summer Opera for the past ten years.

"The Sunken Garden"

DR. ERIC SORANTIN, for many seasons conductor of the Chicago Little Philharmonic Orchestra, has been engaged as musical director of the San Antonio Civic Opera Company which is presenting a summer series of operettas at the open air theatre, "The Sunken Garden". The opening performance of "Rio Rita" on June 15th, 16th and 17th with Marita Farell of the Metropolitan Opera Company as leading soprano proved unusually successful as was Friml's operetta, "My Maryland" given July 13th, 14th and 15th. Operettas yet to be given are "New Moon", "Mlle. Modiste", "Desert Song", and "Rose Marie".

DR. ERIC SORANTIN

Opera Writers, Attention

AN award of $1,000—as an encouragement toward writing of a short American opera—has been offered by the Alice M. Ditson Fund of Columbia University and the Metropolitan Opera Association. The manuscripts must be in the judges' hands by September 1, 1945, and the composers must submit full orchestral as well as piano and vocal scores. Only native and naturalized Americans will be acceptable as competitors.

The sponsors stipulate not only that the opera be suitable for production at the Metropolitan but also that it have an English text and be not over seventy-five minutes in length.

Full details may be obtained from Eric T. Clarke, administrative secretary, Metropolitan Opera Association, Inc., New York 18, New York.

"Song of Norway"

"SONG OF NORWAY", based on the life and music of the illustrious Norwegian composer, Edvard Grieg, and created especially for the Los Angeles and San Francisco Light Opera Associations, proved to be a hit when given by the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera Association last month. One of the critics in his "first-night" write-up described the occasion as the "most significant premiere held here in some years." The operetta is based on a story of Homer Curran. Robert Wright and George Forrest are responsible for the musical adaptation and lyrics.

Experimental Opera

OUT-OF-DOOR SUMMER OPERA will be introduced to Indianapolis on an experimental basis with the three-night presentation July 21st, 22nd and 23rd of "The Pirates of Penzance" in Garfield Park's amphitheatre as a cooperative venture between the sponsoring committee and the Indianapolis Department of Public Parks. The success of the series will pave the way for a permanent summer light opera organization.

Grand Rapids

THE Grand Rapids Municipal Opera Company opened its season at the Ramona Park theatre July 3rd, with "Naughty Marietta". Subsequent offerings are "Roberta", "Robin Hood", "Rosalie", "New Moon", "Hit the Deck", "Babes in Toyland" and "Vagabond King", the last named to run two weeks.

Summer Festival

THE Chicago fourteen-week "Summer Festival of Famous Operettas" includes seven revivals of musical favorites.

Nothing is politically right which is morally wrong.—DANIEL O'CONNELL.

Convention Gives Unqualified Approval

AFTER the recording ban went into effect on August 1st, 1942, the country was flooded with newspaper articles, editorials and cartoons, all part of an organized campaign of vilification and scurrility against President Petrillo and the Executive Board. The large majority of the attacks were aimed at President Petrillo, making him appear as a dictator who had forced the Federation to do his bidding, notwithstanding the fact that the ban was the result of the insistent demand of our entire membership for relief from the competitive use of recordings by many persons who employed no live musicians yet got the benefit of their services.

In spite of all the attacks, which in the main consisted of prejudiced untruths, the President and Executive Board stood firm in carrying out the mandates of numerous conventions and fought our enemies through the courts, up to the Supreme Court of the United States, which tribunal upheld our position. Then the interests, some of whom never employed a live musician, forced the matter before a sub-committee of the United States Senate and also before the War Labor Board, which latter body has just handed down a decision apparently not in our favor, but which in reality decides nothing.

The hearings before the panel of the War Labor Board developed the interesting fact that the National Association of Broadcasters, generally known as N. A. B. (the majority of whose members employ no musicians in their radio stations), which was not even a party to the proceedings and therefore had no official standing in the case, paid for all the expensive exhibits introduced in evidence in the case by the transcription companies. These consisted of charts and graphs made up of statistics gathered by N. A. B., and it was admitted that N. A. B. had financed the proceedings on behalf of the companies.

It is to be noted that, whereas more than eighty companies who have signed our contracts admit a responsibility for the plight of the musician whose employment is reduced due to mechanical competition and are willing to assist in its alleviation, two recalcitrant companies, though they admit there is such a problem, with callous indifference declare it "none of their business".

Attempts were made to bring discord into our ranks by stories that our President was not acting in the best interests of the members and that our by-laws gave him dictatorial powers, with the intimation that these laws were passed at his instigation, whereas it is well known that they existed long before he became President.

The old game of waving the flag was also indulged in by our enemies. We were supposed to be unpatriotic notwithstanding the facts that nearly one-third of our entire membership is in the armed services, that we have contributed millions of dollars in services for the armed forces and are continuing to do so and that the ban did not hinder the war effort in the least. We continued to make records for the use of the men in service and have many letters from governmental agencies attesting their appreciation of our help.

Instead of having the desired effect these distortions only served to solidify our Federation. We have always been a unified organization and can boast that our members were never more loyal than during the past two years. Knowing the truth they stand foursquare behind our President in the realization that he is carrying out the wishes of the rank and file of the membership.

If any evidence were needed that musicians have full confidence in their officers it was furnished by their re-election at our Convention in Chicago a few weeks ago. (Incidentally—and this came as a surprise to Senator Clark*, father of the Senate Investigation into the affairs of the Federation, who learned of it first during the hearing before the Senate Sub-Committee—our by-laws provide for nomination for office from the floor of the Convention, instead of by an intervening nomination committee, which is the method used in many organizations to control elections by a small group.) Further proof of confidence of members was provided by the following resolutions which were spontaneously introduced and unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTION No. 43.

(This resolution directs that no members play for recordings except in conformity with the existing contracts. It is a mandate to the President and the Executive Board to continue in the same manner as heretofore, and ratification of everything that has been done in the recording situation.)

WHEREAS, The Convention of the American Federation of Musicians, held at Seattle, Washington, in June, 1941, instructed the officers of the Federation to take appropriate action to abolish the evil of unemployment created by the use of mechanized music; and,

WHEREAS, President Petrillo of the Federation reported to the Convention of the Federation at Dallas, Texas, in June, 1942, that the Executive Board was prepared to take action in the matter by terminating all licenses for all musical services in connection with the making and manufacture of recordings and transcriptions, and

WHEREAS, The American Federation of Musicians did on June 21, 1942, send written notice to all persons engaged in manufacturing and making of records and transcriptions to the effect that after August 1, 1942, musicians would no longer work in the making and manufacturing of recordings and transcriptions which had the effect of displacing live musicians; and,

WHEREAS, On August 1, 1942, all employment of that character terminated, and no demands were made upon employers, and the same was a complete severance and termination of the employment relationship; and,

WHEREAS, Subsequently, some of the former employers did agree to employ members of the American Federation of Musicians in the making of transcriptions and records upon terms and conditions embodied in certain agreements, one of which is known as the "Decca" agreement, and another is known as the "Four Employer Contract", and the making of said agreements being instigated by Government agencies, and

WHEREAS, Other companies are desirous of employing members of the American Federation of Musicians in the making and manufacturing of records,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That no member or members of the American Federation of Musicians shall take employment or become employed in the making and manufacturing of records and transcriptions upon terms and conditions different from those prescribed in the "Decca" contract or in the "Four Employer Contract"; and the officers of the American Federation of Musicians hereby stand instructed to refrain from entering into any contracts or agreements with any person, company, or employer who seeks the services of any musicians in the making of records and transcriptions unless such person, company or employer enters into a written agreement with the Federation embodying the same terms and conditions now included in the "Decca" contract and the "Four Employer Contract", and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Convention now in session hereby ratifies and confirms all acts of the officers and the Executive Board of the Federation heretofore taken on the subject referred to in this resolution.

J. K. WALLACE (47).

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

(This resolution was introduced and sponsored by all the colored delegates to the Convention and is further evidence of the unanimity of opinion among the members.)

WHEREAS, In the past two years our honored President, James C. Petrillo, has done everything possible to carry out the mandates of the National Conventions of the A. F. of M., and

WHEREAS, In the course of his activity as President, he has ever been militant in fighting for the common interests of all members of the Federation, regardless of race, creed, color or national origin, and

WHEREAS, In the interest of good faith and fair dealing, we the undersigned, here and now resolve to let the people of our nation know of our feeling toward President James C. Petrillo, our honored Chief Executive, and

WHEREAS, Because of the most unfavorable publicity he has received at the hands of the enemies of organized labor, as well as the press and syndicated newspapers and periodicals, who have sought along with many others, high in the government of our country, to discredit his acts, with the hope of gaining public favor—further to attempt to destroy the high morale of the members of our organization:—

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the representative delegates to this Forty-eighth Convention, do hereby give our President a sincere vote of confidence. Be it further resolved, that we delegates concur in all former acts of our honored President. We herewith pray that the rich blessings of God Almighty be upon him, giving him strength, wisdom and understanding that he might continue the great work before him, that of raising the cultural values of the art of music, along with greater opportunities for economic advancement, and the perpetuation of our time-honored Federation.

(Signed): W. H. Bailey (710), Edward W. Bailey (767), Paul L. Howard (767), Fay E. Allen (767), Jack C. White (641), Robert J. Willis (548), Lloyd B. Gist (533), Lloyd V. Plummer (533), John F. Wood (473), Louis Jones (419), Charles S. Exum (242), R. L. Goodwin (550), William Shaw (627), S. S. Melendez (471), Velmer Mason (286), Bernard Mason (543), Edward A. Prettyman (543), Clemon E. Jackson (535), Artie Matthews (814), William Houston (496), J. E. Morton (637), P. S. Cooke (462), Musco C. Buckner (208), Harry W. Gray (208), Wm. Everett Samuels (208), J. C. Douglas (675), Calvin A. Shields (632), Chas. Williamson (558), Jesse Hicks (185), Wm. H. Graham (623).

RESOLUTION No. 19.

(This resolution is also a pledge of confidence to our President, calling specific attention to the fact that his actions were the result of instructions of the Convention in Seattle in 1941.)

WHEREAS, We, the members of the Corpus Christi Musicians' Association, Local 644, A. F. of M., have received the written reports of President James C. Petrillo regarding the canned music fight, through the medium of the International Musician, and

WHEREAS, We have learned through the reports of the action he has taken to place before certain groups the right of our membership to be protected, and

WHEREAS, In his reports he has given the officers of the A. F. of M. full credit for their support in this fight, as well as the membership as a whole;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That at this National Convention of the American Federation of Musicians, the delegates present wholeheartedly endorse his reports, his actions, as per instructions of the Forty-sixth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Musicians in Seattle, Washington, and the results he has obtained, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Convention here assembled give our President a rising vote of thanks and confidence at the time this resolution is adopted.

WILLIAM CLITHEROE (644)
TERRY FERRELL (644)

This should be sufficient answer to those who have been defaming our President. It should prove conclusively that the recording ban is an expression of the will of our entire membership and that the manner in which it has been conducted has its whole-hearted approval.

Public sentiment which was swayed by the misrepresentations of a biased and unfriendly press is turning in our favor, as the truth forces its way into the open. The knowledge that we are right strengthens our purpose to continue the fight until we achieve our goal.

New Laws and Changes

The following are important New Laws and changes in the By-Laws of the American Federation of Musicians, adopted and ratified by the 1944 Convention. They will become effective September 15th, 1944, and all members are directed to govern themselves accordingly.

Conditional Membership Abolished

Due to neutral jurisdictions being eliminated the granting of Conditional Membership has been abolished.

Correction in Transfer Law

Change the words "one week" on line 3 of paragraph 2 of Section 10, Article XII, page 113, to read "two weeks". This corrects the verbiage and makes it consistent with the law.

National Secretary to Notify Locals When Claims Are Filed Against Establishments in Their Jurisdictions

In all instances where claims are entered by out-of-town musicians against establishments in which they have played, the National Secretary's Office shall immediately notify the local of that fact.

Simplifying the Laws of the Federation

The Executive Board has been instructed to codify and simplify the laws and index at the earliest opportunity.

Leaders and Agents Must Notify Local Where They May Be Located

On arrival in the jurisdiction of a local where an engagement is to be played, the leader or his agent must advise the local secretary of the place where the leader and agent may be located.

Changes by President to Be Published

Whenever the President under his powers in an emergency promulgates an amendment to the Constitution or By-Laws such change shall be printed in the first issue of the International Musician after the effective date of promulgation.

* While the investigation was supposed to be impartial, Senator Clark assumed the role of prosecutor of President Petrillo. Also strange was the fact that, while the witnesses for the Federation were put under oath, the witnesses against it were not required to conform to this formality. Of such strange things are Senatorial Investigations made. Senator D. Worth Clark, we might add, was recently defeated for renomination.

Over FEDERATION Field

By CHAUNCEY A. WEAVER

THE UNFAILING DAWN

Shadows creep across the sky;
Telling us that night is nigh;
Ne'er despair: The reason why?
'Tis always morning—somewhere.

Night puts on her starry crown;
On a sleepy world looks down;
Broods o'er countryside and town;—
But always morning—somewhere!

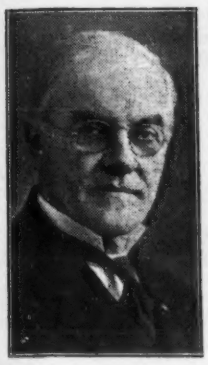
At last the night-time shadows lift;
The eastern clouds begin to shift;
And lo! the sun shines through the rift;
'Tis always morning—somewhere!

—CHAUNCEY A. WEAVER.

O, what a wonderful morning!
Glad to be back home once more;
Humming sweet "Oklahome" music—
Tuneful and beautiful score!
We'll ever remember Chicago;
They dined and they wined to a fill;
They wanted us all to remember,
Her long famous motto—"I will!"

WHERE was Paula Day of Local 368? We thought she might appear with a Rocky Mountain gold-lined high pressure invitation to bring the 1945 Convention to Reno.

We had a thrilling experience on one of Chicago's windy days. Last season's straw hat was lifted on the invisible wings of super-agitated atmosphere and sailed upward in spiral fashion to a point almost beyond the range of human vision—when lo, and behold! the vagrant piece of head-gear began a spasmodic and irregular descent—finally aiming directly toward a mudhole on the opposite side of a taxi-cab. Just as we began to meditate upon the probabilities of a $1.98 loss, who should reach out a long arm from hitherto invisibility and seize the hat, but Delegate Sam Simmons, from Local 125, Norfolk, Virginia! As a one-man rescue squad Sam is a phenomenal success and entitled to our gratitude.



Chauncey Weaver

The International Executive Board is unhampered by any eight-hour restriction.

It was a real happiness to the friends of Al Rackett to see him in his accustomed place as a Local 10 delegate after his long spell of illness. May increasing strength and vigor be a constant visitation.

The Indiana State Conference was held at Kokomo, in the ballroom of the Labor Temple, Sunday, May 28, 1944. Twelve locals out of the state's twenty-four were represented, as follows:

Local 3, Indianapolis; Local 32, Anderson; Local 53, Logansport; Local 58, Fort Wayne; Local 141, Kokomo; Local 162, Lafayette; Local 192, Elkhart; Local 203, Hammond; Local 245, Muncie; Local 253, Warsaw; Local 278, South Bend; Local 414, Bremen.

President Walter Sparks of Local 141 gave a brief but cordial address of welcome and then turned the deliberations over to Conference President E. C. Souders of Muncie.

Mr. Walter Bennett welcomed the Conference in behalf of the Kokomo Trade and Labor Assembly.

The Conference delegates were alive to the fact that the American Federation of Musicians is face to face with abnormal and unprecedented conditions. The 30 per cent tax which was the latest incubus to be attached to the mechanism of modern existence; the reduction in local active personnel; the great difficulty in making public officials appreciate the right to professional recognition which is an inherent right—these were issues which were discussed with intelligent force and in good temper throughout the session.

The Conference was in session from 10:00 o'clock forenoon to 4:30 afternoon. At noon, an hour was set aside in which to partake of a magnificent chicken dinner at the Courtland Hotel.

Henry, the "Fitz", Field Representative, of Cleveland, gave an interesting review of the conditions disclosed by visitation to various sections of his territory.

Executive Officer Weaver reviewed the long-drawn-out battles which the International Executive Board has been compelled to wage during the past two years, but did his best to paint a silver lining to the prospects which lie ahead—if the Federal powers that be will consent to remove the impedimenta which they have seen fit to lay across our path.

Resolutions of appreciation of the fine entertainment provided were adopted by unanimous vote.

The Conference election resulted in the following selection of officers for the ensuing year: President, L. B. Elmore of Lafayette; Vice-President, Francis Eckstein of Elkhart; Secretary, C. R. Covington of Anderson; Treasurer, Fay Bloss of South Bend; Board of Trustees, E. C. Souders of Muncie, Elmer Kruse of Indianapolis, Ralph Hutto of Kokomo.

The oath of office to the new officers was administered by the writer.

The next State Conference was set for the last Sunday in April, 1945, at South Bend.

Kokomo Local, the entertaining host, is officered as follows: President, Walter Sparks; Vice-President, Walter Aspy; Secretary, Ralph Hutto; Treasurer and Business Agent, Robert K. Harvey; Sergeant-at-Arms, Lawrence Carpenter; Trustees, Glen Doty, Paul Shaffer, Elliott Vincent and Robert McKay.

The writer desires to express his sincere appreciation for the many courtesies shown him on this first visit to Kokomo.

We often hear—frequently boastingly—that "this is a commercial age". Perhaps that explains in part why the art of music has such a struggle to retain its place in the sun.

The phrase, "bare necessities", may have something to do with steadily altitudinal rising of the lower skirt horizon.

In spite of the Paul D. McNutt declaration that "music is a non-essential of war", a notice, evidently given out under governmental auspices, reads, "You still have an opportunity to be of service in your chosen profession." The efficacy of music as a morale builder is unquestioned. Men are needed to augment the band at an officers' training camp. Pay, $238.00 per month. Address Box 20, Burlingame, California.

Through the medium of the Detroit Keynote (Local No. 5), we are able to glean information concerning the Michigan State Conference recently held at Port Huron—Local 33 acting the part of host, with the Harrington Hotel the place of headquarters. Executive Officer Oscar F. Hild of Cincinnati represented the national office. The report says that "Mr. Hild's interesting and educational talks and discussions on matters of national interest pertaining to the tax situation, recordings and other matters of great interest to every member, were the highlights of the Conference." There was an enjoyable banquet and Local 33 did a fine job in entertaining the delegates and visitors. The next Conference goes to Detroit. The following Conference officials were elected: President, George V. Clancy of Detroit; Vice-President, Mrs. Maud Stern of Kalamazoo; Secretary-Treasurer, William J. Dart of Port Huron; Executive Board, Harry Bliss of Ann Arbor, Douglass Archbold of Battle Creek, and Walter Timmerman of Jackson. Michigan always has a lively and interesting State Conference.

The Jacksonville, Florida, Searchlight, in "Musical Musings", by George P. Boutwell, carries the following interesting item:

> That people will pay most any price for a good souvenir is proved by the fact that Paul Whiteman's baton was auctioned off after each concert he played during the last bond sale. This one stunt brought in $1,250,000.

If every baton twirler in the United States should enter the game—what would the harvest be?

In reply to the delegate who requested information as to where the quotation used at the close of the Fred W. Birnbach eulogy might be found, we refer him to Whittier's "Snowbound", in which will be found depicted the joys and sorrows coming to the hardy pioneers of rural life in the New England hills in the long ago.

With due appreciation we acknowledge receipt of a special Flag Day issue of the Lake County Labor News, published at Waukegan, Illinois. It is as thick in make-up as a Sears-Roebuck catalogue; contains fifty-two pages, and is designed to spread the A. F. of L. doctrine to a wide-spread constituency. On one of its pages may be found a column review of the historic development of Waukegan Local 284, which first saw the light on March 3, 1903. For forty-one years it has flown the A. F. of M. flag. It has had its occasional hard problems to solve, its impedimenti to hurdle, but always comes through with flying colors. It is officered by President Percy G. Snow (now serving his ninth term), Vice-President Irwin L. Stockstill, Secretary-Treasurer George W. Pritchard, Sergeant-at-Arms, Arvo Karjala; Board of Directors, David Cohen, John Callanan, Harry Hoover and Melvin Hook. This Golden Jubilee number is a fine testimonial to the high standing which the American Federation of Labor and all its affiliates have attained in the wide territory served.

And another one we missed was Secretary A. W. Stuebling of Local 11, Louisville, Kentucky, for many years a delegate to national A. F. of M. conventions. We hope for his speedy recovery.

If the delegate, whose name has slipped our mind, who requested samples of a certain type of letterhead, which we occasionally use, will refresh our recollection with his name and post office address, we shall be happy to grant his request.

Through Delegate Byron Jacques of Local 297, Wichita, Kansas, we learned of the death of his father, A. E. Jacques, who passed away on May 19th. The elder Jacques served as local president for twenty years; was president of the Trades and Labor Assembly for four years, and was elected clerk of the district court eight times. He was delegate to several national A. F. of M. conventions. He is survived by a wife and nine children, one of whom was a former member of Sousa's Band. We have pleasant recollections of many former contacts with Brother Jacques in days gone by, and sympathy with the family in the loss which not only they but the community have sustained.

Chicago's famous lake-side breeze,
Is sometimes quite a flirt;
She now and then will make you sneeze,
Or fill your eyes with dirt.
But this time she was at her best;
She did not try to fool;
She knew just when we needed rest;
And how to keep us cool.

We deeply regret that illness prevented the convention appearance of James Gregg, long-time secretary of Local 498 of Missoula, Montana. He has been a tower of strength to the Federation cause in his home territory as a wide range of members can testify. We are certain of his keen disappointment in being unable to meet the friends and acquaintances made in previous conventions. May he have a speedy recovery from his present illness.

Among the number of our long-time dependable delegates missing we would name P. Culbertson of Local 101 of Dayton, Ohio. He has been local secretary for many years and an active figure in his home city in musical circles. We hope health and strength will soon restore him to his old-time vigor.

When a convention necrology list reaches fifty-three in a two-year period—composed of names of former delegates—there comes food for sober reflection.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Conference of Pennsylvania and Delaware locals recently held at York, Pennsylvania, was an enthusiastic gathering and an all-round success. The roll call showed the following locals represented: Allentown, Altoona, Bangor-Stroudsburg, Charleroi, Chester, Erie, Glen Lyon, Greensburg, Hanover, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Lebanon, New Kensington, Norristown, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Reading, Uniontown, Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport, Wilmington and York.

Saturday evening was festivity night. Sunday morning the Conference got down to official business. President J. Wharton Gootee of Chester presided; George H. Wilkins of Pittsburgh functioned as secretary.

State Officer Clair Meeder reported on the Pennsylvania legislative picture. National Officer Rex Riccardi was called upon for a review of national Federation activities. Many issues were discussed with animation and intelligence. They involved questions similar to those confronting every conference throughout the nation. War demoralization has laid its heavy hand upon the musical profession, the same as on every other craft and organization. From a reading of the Conference report it is easy to discern the outline of a successful meeting.

Uniontown, Pennsylvania, was selected as the location of the next Conference.

Selection of Conference officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, J. Wharton Gootee of Chester; First Vice-President, Clair E. Meeder of Pittsburgh; Second Vice-President, William S. Mason of Uniontown; Third Vice-President, George W. Snyder of Reading; Secretary, George H. Wilkins of Pittsburgh; Treasurer, O. Oscar Dell of Hanover.

One of the musical delights of the Convention period was the pipe organ playing of Mr. F. LeRoy Nelson, a Chicago native son, and member of Local 10 since 1919. His repertoire was as amplitudinous and variegated as the world-wide range of musical composition. Classical, modernistic, and the unusual responded to his touch with equal felicity; and the two daily programs both had large crowds of attentive and appreciative listeners.

It was a pleasure to have A. R. Teta appear upon a national Convention scene once more. For an extended period he has functioned as Chief Supervisor and Inspector of Band Instruments Section, at Atlanta, Georgia. He has relinquished that position to become secretary-treasurer of the United States Army and Navy Bandmen's Association, Inc., where he can be reached through P. O. Box 1826, New Haven, Connecticut. To meet him again was to span once more past years through which he has come apparently hale and hearty and zealous in the cause in which he has been so long engaged.

Many delegates propounded the query, "Where will we go from here?"

To appreciate how Chicago has grown, one should read a description of the city at the time Abraham Lincoln was first nominated for the Presidency in the Wigwam, which had been erected for that historic event, in 1860.

Anyone carrying the patronymical embellishment of Désiré DeFauw must be endowed with a high-grade of genius. The one we have in mind is surely in that class. We refer to the new conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. This great organization had its foundations laid under the leadership of Theodore Thomas. When Thomas passed away, the viola player in the orchestra, "to fortune and to fame unknown", was called to the position thus vacated. As usual there were lifted eyebrows of apprehension, whisperings of suspicious dissent, and clamorous tongues opining that the young Frederick Stock would never do. Well, he did do for something like a third of a century; and brought this notable company of instrumentalists to a world-wide fame. Stock's hour of translation came and the new conductor, above named, assumed the baton of leadership. Some of Chicago's tinsel-winged newspaper critics are filling their allotted space with the barbed-wire tips of their high and lofty animadversions. We venture to say that the one and one-half hour concert given by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, on the opening day of the recent Convention, was looked upon by delegates and visitors as a great event, an enriching experience, and that the new man at the helm made a profound and lasting impression. All hail to Désiré DeFauw!

Color is not a handicap to Marian Anderson. Modestly and with calm poise her very soul seems to lift upward on the wings of song. It is no exaggeration to say that she held her convention audience spellbound. Her recalls were numerous. She was generous in response. Long may she live to make her inspiring contributions of melody to all races of the world.

Local 10 was determined to see to it that there was no lack of fine band and orchestra music. Think of crowding into a single week such an array of high-class musical organizations as the following:

Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Director, Désiré DeFauw.

Dyett's Concert Band, Leader, Captain Walter Dyett.

Women's Symphony Orchestra, Conductor, Jerzy Bojanowski.

Cavallo's Symphonic Band, Director, Peter A. Cavallo.

Board of Trade's American Legion Band, Leader, Colonel Armin F. Hand.

Red Saunders and his Band, Leader, Red Saunders.

With eminent propriety this might have been called "A week of musical saturation". Inspiring, glorious, memorable!

Too bad the blackguard and character-assassinating press could not have heard President Petrillo's address and the ovation accorded him on the opening Convention day. However, it is difficult to make impressions on empty skulls.

What thanks we owe to officers and men
For giving us a week we'll ne'er forget!
But language fails us—much to our regret!
Our hats are off to Local No. 10!

NEW LAWS AND CHANGES

Charter to Lapse When Local Membership Becomes Less Than Fifteen

When the membership of any local becomes less than fifteen bona fide members in good standing the charter of such local shall automatically lapse and the members in good standing of such local shall have the right to join the nearest local without payment of initiation fee.

Leader to Be Permitted to Cancel Management Contract If Average Earnings Are Not Maintained

Compliance with the twenty weeks within six months work provision required by Federation contracts shall be deemed fulfilled by booking agents only if the latter shall have offered the artist twenty weeks engagements within each six months period at a scale in reasonable conformity with the average earnings of the artist during the preceding six months period.

New Opera Scale Where Price of Choicest Seat Does Not Exceed $4.00 and Also Where It Does Not Exceed $3.00

Section 5 of Article XIII is changed from ". . . each week, per man, $100.00" to read ". . . each week, per man, $115.00".

Section 6 of Article XIII is changed from ". . . does not exceed $2.00, . . . each week, per man, $85.00" to read ". . . does not exceed $3.00, . . . each week, per man, $100.00."

A new Section 7 is added providing "Where the price of the choicest seat (exclusive of box seats) does not exceed $2.00, for not more than seven performances each week, per man, $90.00."

To the third line on page 137 add "Section 7, pro rata".

Change the seventh line on page 137 which now reads "Sections 5 and 6—$2.00 per hour or less" to read "Sections 5, 6 and 7—$2.00 per hour or less".

Change line 21 on page 137 which now reads: "Sections 5 and 6—not less than $66.00 for one or two rehearsals per day" to read "Sections 5, 6 and 7—not less than $66.00 for one or two rehearsals per day".

Contracts of Employment Must Contain the Following New Clauses:

"Any member or members who are parties to or affected by this contract, whose services thereunder or covered thereby, are prevented, suspended or stopped by reason of any strike, ban, unfair list order or requirement of the Federation shall be free to accept and engage in other employment of the same or similar character, or otherwise, for other employers or persons without any restraint, hindrance, penalty, obligation or liability whatever, any other provisions of this contract to the contrary notwithstanding."

"All contracts of any character or nature for the rendition of musical services are subject to all the existing and future provisions of the Federation's Constitution, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, and all amendments thereto, all of which are made part hereof, with the same force and effect as if they were incorporated herein in full, and in the event of any inconsistency or conflict the provisions of such Constitution, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations shall control."

Members Are Not Permitted to Take Employment for Recordings Under Conditions Different From Those Prescribed by Present Federation Recording Contracts

No member or members of the American Federation of Musicians shall take employment or become employed in the making and manufacturing of records and transcriptions upon terms and conditions different from those prescribed in the "Decca" contract or in the "Four Employer Contract"; and the officers of the American Federation of Musicians hereby stand instructed to refrain from entering into any contracts or agreements with any person, company, or employer who seeks the services of any musicians in the making of records and transcriptions unless such person, company or employer enters into a written agreement with the Federation embodying the same terms and conditions now included in the "Decca" contract and the "Four Employer Contract".

The Convention now in session hereby ratifies and confirms all acts of the officers and the Executive Board of the Federation heretofore taken on the subject referred to in this resolution.

A New Law Designating Through Whom Members May Accept Engagements

Members of the American Federation of Musicians are permitted to solicit, negotiate or accept engagement to play in bands or orchestras ONLY from employers who engage or employ them through a leader, another member, or other persons, who for this purpose shall be considered the agent or agents of such employer. Provided that members may contract personally with a symphony orchestra management.

If a member violates this section the violation shall constitute and be considered as his resignation from the American Federation of Musicians and the local or locals in which he holds membership.

Taverns and Inland River Boats Added to Traveling Engagements Under Article XIII

Taverns and inland river boats are added to the type of engagements which are considered traveling engagements and should be added to the word "inns" on lines 11 and 20 on page 121, Article XIII.

Traveling Members Must Be in Possession of a Membership Card or Receipt

Article XIII formerly provided that traveling members produce a paid-up card. The law has now been changed so that members must on demand produce either a membership card or a receipt showing current quarter paid in local or locals in which they hold membership.

Fifth War Loan

Two resolutions were introduced having to do with the purchase of War Bonds. A substitute for these resolutions recommended by the committee and passed by the Convention urged and recommended that the American Federation of Musicians and all of its locals and members purchase War Bonds to the fullest extent of their ability to pay.

Locals to Receive Share of Radio Tax

Article X, Section D, Paragraph 2, is amended to provide that 20 per cent of the radio tax collected thereunder is to be returned to the local and 80 per cent to be retained by the Federation.

DECISION OF NATIONAL WAR LABOR BOARD

Our contracts with the eighty-nine companies read that if we give a better deal to anyone else, they are entitled to get the same deal. How can we record for two companies which have not signed up and still require eighty-nine companies which have signed up, to pay the Federation so much per record? If we record for Columbia and RCA-Victor, we may lose the eighty-nine contracts now in force. To permit our members to work for these two companies without a contract would give an unfair competitive advantage to these two companies.

I desire to emphasize the fact that the agreements executed by the eighty-nine companies were accepted by us at the insistence of the Fact Finding Panel which was appointed by the War Labor Board, and was urged as a solution to the existing controversy. Now, it repudiates itself and its Panel by refusing to impose the same obligation on two stubborn employers who, during the hearings, agreed to the principle involved and later rejected that approval. The attitude of these two recording companies was, no doubt, inspired by the National Association of Broadcasters, Wall Street and the National Association of Manufacturers.

I should like to point out that we did not ask the War Labor Board to order anyone to give us anything. Even now, we do not ask the War Labor Board to direct these two powerful and wealthy corporations to sign the same agreement that Decca and eighty-eight other companies have signed. Our position before the War Labor Board was that it should not permit these two companies, which have fought a solution to the problem of unemployment in the musical field for years, to obtain a competitive advantage over eighty-nine other companies which have agreed to make a limited payment per record to the American Federation of Musicians for an employment fund. We also asked the War Labor Board to abstain from imposing upon us a condition of involuntary servitude.

People who are informed in labor history, and who know how employers have fought labor unions in the past, have stated to me and to others, that no companies ever fought the principles embodied in the Decca and similar contracts, as viciously as RCA-Victor and Columbia have fought us in our efforts to have these principles adopted.

The War Labor Board, however, has ruled that the "ban" should be lifted so that our members will be free to record for RCA-Victor and Columbia, even though these companies have refused to sign the same form of contract as Decca and the others have signed. The Board has further recommended that negotiations be resumed with these companies in an effort to settle the controversy.

With respect to the Smith-Connally Act—we do not come within its provisions because employment was severed many months prior to the passage of this Act. As a matter of fact, the Executive Board action was taken on October 1, 1941, following which our people quit their employment and severed the relationship of employer and employee.

With respect to labor's no-strike pledge, it applies only to the relationship of employer and employee. There can be no strike without an immediate and proximate relationship of employer and employee. I may say that this subject was discussed at the Convention of the American Federation of Labor at Toronto. The American Federation of Labor unanimously went on record in support of our position in proclaiming and maintaining the so-called "ban". This emphasizes the fact that the "no-strike pledge" does not apply to this controversy.

Our position at all times has been that we are not a war industry, nor are we in any manner impeding the war effort. These companies are working at full capacity in making recordings. The American Federation of Musicians has made records for the Government from the time the "ban" was placed until the present moment and will continue to do so.

In conclusion, the ban remains in effect by order of the Chicago Convention until such time as RCA-Victor and Columbia execute the same form of contract that Decca and the eighty-eight other companies have signed. Neither the President nor the International Executive Board of the American Federation of Musicians has power or authority to reverse this action. Members will be governed accordingly.

Fraternally yours,

JAMES C. PETRILLO, President,
American Federation of Musicians.

The Committee on Credentials reports through Chairman W. Clayton Dow.

To the Forty-eighth Convention of the American Federation of Musicians:

Greetings:

The undersigned Committee on Credentials herewith submits a report on the credentials submitted to us:

The Credentials Committee has examined all credentials and compared same with the books of the Financial Secretary-Treasurer, and we find that the list of delegates as just read by the Secretary are entitled to seats at this Convention, with the exception of the delegates from the following Locals:

Locals Nos. 496, 588, 600, 673.

The delegates from those Locals must consult with the Financial Secretary-Treasurer, Thomas F. Gamble, before they can be seated.

The following communications are read and made a part of the record:

Missoula, Mont.,
June 4, 1944.

James C. Petrillo, President,
American Federation of Musicians,
Stevens Hotel, Chicago, Ill.

Jimmy, deeply regret inability to attend the Convention opening, June 5th. Sincerely hope you have a very successful Convention. I will see you next year.

JAMES GREGG,
Delegate, Local 498.

Quincy, Ill.,
June 3, 1944.

James C. Petrillo, President,
American Federation of Musicians,
Hotel Stevens, Chicago, Ill.

Greetings to the Convention from Local 265. Personal felicitations will be conveyed by Delegate Frank A. Malambri.

Fraternally yours,
CARL LANDRUM,
Secretary, Local 265.

On motion, the time limit for sessions, effective June 7th, was set as follows:

A.M.—9:30 A.M. to 12:00 Noon.
P.M.—2:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Secretary Cluesmann makes a motion that the telegram from President Roosevelt be made a part of the record of this Convention.

The motion is adopted.

President Roosevelt's telegram follows:

The White House,
Washington, D. C.,
June 5, 1944.

American Federation of Musicians,
Stevens Hotel, Chicago, Ill.

Hearty greetings to all who attend the Forty-eighth Convention and my best wishes for a successful and constructive session. American musicians, like artists and workers in all other fields, are making fine contributions to our war effort. That fight is being carried to the enemy by day and by night, on land, on sea and in the air by gallant soldiers and sailors who are the sons and brothers of American wage-earners.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

Concert Bands

TOGETHER with an improvement in the calibre of concert bands comes a gratifying raising of the standards of compositions written primarily for this type of ensemble. Proof enough of this fact is the list of composers given on a single program of original works presented recently by the Goldman Band of New York City: Samuel Barber, Erik W. G. Leidzen, Ralph Vaughan Williams, Robert L. Sanders, Gustav Holst, Pasquale Mondrone, and Jaromir Weinberger.

Goldman Band

THE third week of the Daniel and Florence Guggenheim Memorial Concerts by the Goldman Band, under the direction of Edwin Franko Goldman, included besides several programs of original band compositions a concert devoted to excerpts from famous operas. The concert of July 2nd, "Salute to the Allies", offered Barber's "Commando March", the National Anthem of our Allies, "March of the Four Allies" by Edwin Franko Goldman and "The United Nations" by Dmitri Shostakovich.

EDWIN FRANKO GOLDMAN

Municipal Band Concerts

THE seventh annual series of Municipal Band Concerts, under the general sponsorship of Hon. F. H. LaGuardia, the Park Department and Local 802, New York, on June 25th got under way its series of summer concerts given at the various Municipal Pools, Recreational Centers and Parks in Greater New York. Each concert in this series is sponsored additionally by local interests. Thus, the concert of June 25th was under the sponsorship of Skouras Theatres Corporation, June 27th, July 4th and 6th, the Manufacturers Trust Company, June 29th, the Bulova Watch Company and July 2nd simply "A Friend of Music". Captain Francis W. Sutherland, Eugene Plotnikoff, John Meiszner, Salvatore Dell'Isola, David Mordecai, and George F. Briegel have already this season been conductors of these concerts.

Daytona Beach Concert Band

AFTER an absence from the Ocean Front Band Shell for nearly two years, the Daytona Beach Concert Band played its opening program of the summer season on the night of June 1st, to a most appreciative audience. Its last engagement terminated Labor Day, 1942, at which time the strict military blackout on the ocean front had curtailed most of the entertainment activities.

This season the band is under the direction of W. Clifford Fraine who for many years has been oboe soloist with the band. While it has lost many of its younger members to the Service, it is still able to carry on. The Daytona Beach recreation department has plans under consideration to give the public year-round concerts at the end of the war when those of its members now in the service return.

Announcements are made.

Introduction of resolutions follows.

Vice-President Bagley calls attention to the fact that the A. F. of M. is holding its third convention in Chicago. The two previous conventions were held in 1918 and 1933, respectively.

The session adjourned at 5:00 P. M.

The Official Proceedings of the Chicago Convention will be continued in the August issue.

Convention Bands

OUTSTANDING features of the Forty-eighth Convention were the band concerts presented at the opening of the sessions on June 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th. The concert band directed by Captain Walter Dyett, the Symphonic Band conducted by Peter A. Cavallo and the Board of Trade American Legion Band conducted by Col. Armin F. Hand were the performing units.

Grant Park

THE tenth annual season of Grant Park concerts opened July 1st under the sponsorship of the park district and under the management of Walter L. Larsen assisted by George A. Kuyper, manager of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Bands and other musical organizations present the Tuesday concerts, under the general direction of Captain L. E. Watters.

Reading, Pennsylvania

A BAND composed of forty members of Local 135 conducted by Edward A. Gicker gave a concert in celebration of "I am an American Day" at City Park, Reading, Pennsylvania. Works by Sousa, Herbert, Myddleton and Gomez figured prominently on the program.

Chicago Musical Purchases Interest in Gibson, Inc.

Chicago Musical Instrument Company has purchased a substantial stock interest in the business of Gibson, Inc., Kalamazoo, Michigan, the country's largest manufacturer of stringed instruments in terms of money volume. At a meeting of a new Board of Directors held in Kalamazoo on May 18th, Guy Hart, long secretary and treasurer and general manager of Gibson's, was elected president; Maurice H. Berlin, president of Chicago Musical, was elected secretary and treasurer. Edward F. Morse, Chicago, is the new vice-president.

Mr. Berlin has made his mark in the industry not only because of his energy and resourcefulness, but also because of his business principles and his strict regard for the relationships between distributor and retailer. All of Mr. Berlin's moves on the checkerboard of the music industry have been predicated upon the conviction that music dealers of the country constitute the cornerstone of the music business. Having long specialized in the sales promotion of quality lines, Mr. Berlin may be considered an expert in that field. Experiences of the Gibson company in war production, in which notable achievements were recognized with the award of the Army-Navy "E" recently, have convinced the management that the elimination of all problems of sale and distribution will permit the factory to scale new heights of quality and efficiency.

Schillinger System

Walter Fischer, president of Carl Fischer, Inc., today announced that contracts had been signed for publication of the internationally famous treatise on musical theory known as the Schillinger System of Musical Composition. Written and developed by the late Joseph Schillinger, scientific and musical genius who died last year, the contents of the celebrated manuscript are known at present only to a limited group of outstanding composers and arrangers who studied with Schillinger.

The complete roster of Schillinger students reads like a "Who's Who" in American music. Big name bandleaders include Benny Goodman, Will Bradley, Jack Miller, conductor for Kate Smith; Lyn Murray, Paul Lavalle, leader of the Lower Basin Street Symphony; Alvino Rey and Glenn Miller, whose song hit, "Moonlight Serenade", was first written as an exercise for Schillinger.

Among the song writers, George Gershwin was a pupil of Schillinger for four and a half years. Vernon Duke, musical comedy composer of the current army show, "Tars and Spars", and Matty Malneck, writer of "Star Dust", were pupils of the theorist.

In its present form, the Schillinger manuscript consists of twenty-five volumes of about 3,000 typewritten pages. Book I deals with Schillinger's Theory of Rhythm, which he regarded as basic to his system. Succeeding books cover every phase of musical theory and practice, including melody writing, pitch scales, counterpoint, harmony, evolution of musical styles, instrumentology and orchestration.

When he set out on his journey of discovery, Schillinger's first effort was to find whether or not the music of the concededly great composers—Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Wagner—was constructed on rational principles. To thousands of actual works of these "greats", Schillenger applied the powerful instrument of advanced mathematical and scientific analysis. As a result Schillinger discovered principles which, for the most part, were entirely unsuspected by previous theorists.

Negotiations for the publication of the Schillinger manuscript were conducted by Mr. Fischer himself and Mr. Arthur Hauser, sales manager of Carl Fischer, Inc. The work is to be put into immediate production.

Selmer Carries On

In spite of cramped quarters (the Navy has "moved in") and an 85 per cent war work program, Selmer continues to supply thousands of musical merchandise items to the trade.

Meet Mr. Newcomer!

This will introduce to Buescher dealers Mr. Walter Newcomer, who has been appointed general factory superintendent to succeed the late Edward Todt. During the past two years Mr. Newcomer did an outstanding job in charge of one very important phase of Buescher's war production. He was asked to produce large quantities of an extremely precise aircraft navigation instrument and the AAF pressed him for immediate results. Walt made good in a big way, in speed, quantity and, most important of all, in quality.

Mr. Newcomer has an interesting program. "First and foremost", he says, "my plans call for the manufacture of the finest band instruments in the world. This calls for the latest scientific methods and machinery. By this means we will produce what will be unquestionably the best merchandise in our industry, which will also increase the demand for our product to a point where each Buescher employee will benefit."

This program is in line with the progressive spirit of America. Under Mr. Newcomer's guidance the Buescher factory will continue its leadership and will make rapid strides forward.

Post-War Flutes

Ed. Armstrong, head of the W. T. Armstrong Company, Elkhart, Indiana, flute manufacturers, recently released an advertising campaign which seeks to assure widespread demand for the company's products in order that there may be no delay in taking up the production slack caused by the eventual suspension of government contracts. His plan for post-war expansion allows for the giving of jobs to returning soldiers when the war is over. As he rightfully points out, "demobilized service men will not only be entitled to, but will demand respectable employment and it is up to us to meet their demands or suffer the consequences."

Nominating Committee

Max Targ, president of the Music War Council of America, has announced the appointment of a new nominating committee which will report to the Council at its annual meeting held in Chicago. The committee consists of: Roy E. Waite, Walter Mueller, Guy Hoover, Henry Feinberg, Samuel Hershman, C. V. Buttleman.

Marks Song Hits

Four new song hits—"Headin' West", "You've Got What It Takes", "On the Isle of the Moonlight Rainbow" and "With Every Star"—featured in the current ice revue, "Hats Off to Ice", the Sonja Henie-Arthur M. Wirtz production which opened in New York on June 22, are being published by the Edward B. Marks Music Corporation.

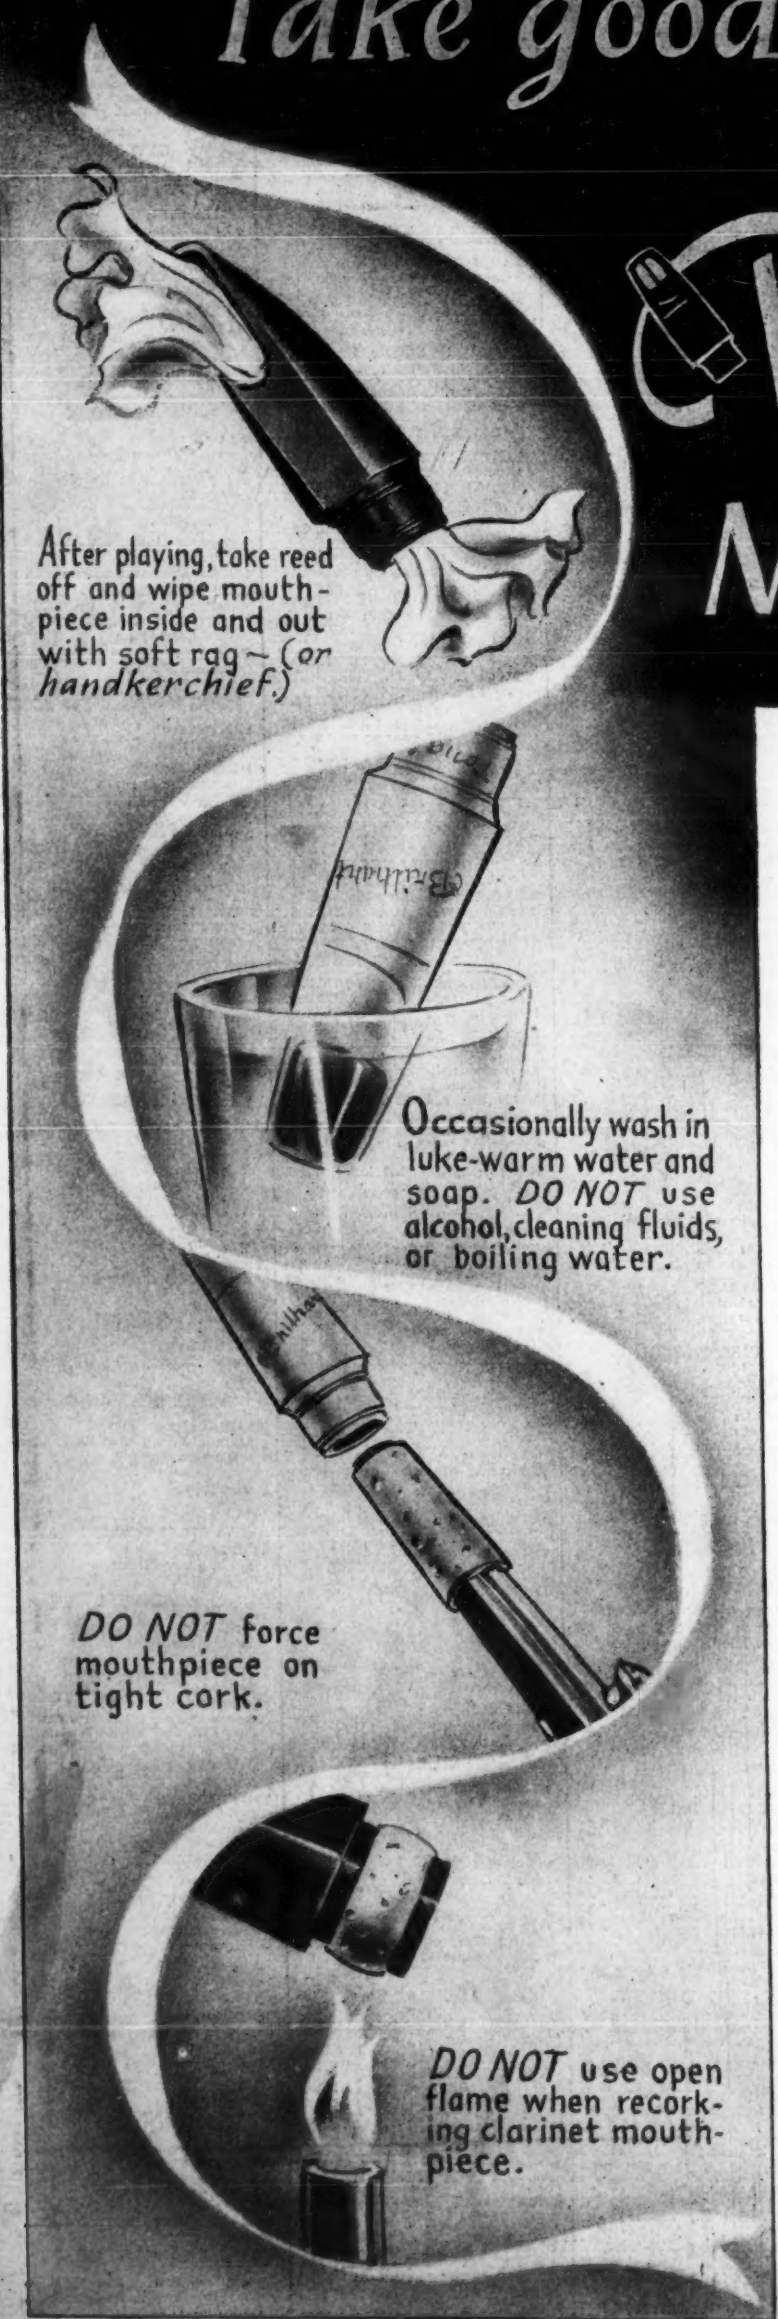
Take good care of your Brilhart MOUTHPIECE



Limited production during the war makes it imperative for you to carefully protect your Brilhart mouthpiece. Do not request more than one set of Brilhart mouthpieces.

The other fellow needs some, too.

See your nearest Brilhart Dealer for specific information on delivery schedules.
